No EBA? No worries!

Add Personal Accident Insurance to your toolbox

At Marsh Advantage Insurance, we understand that contractor or sole traders that are also non-EBA plumbers, may be more vulnerable if they fall ill or have a serious workplace accident as they may not have access to paid sick leave, workers compensation or simply be able to take time off from running a business. That's why we are now offering members of the CEPU of Australia (Plumbing Division) a Personal Accident and Illness policy which can provide financial assistance if a non-EBA plumber is unable to work and earn an income for an extended period of time.

Marsh has industry experience and is the preferred insurance provider for CEPU of Australia (Plumbing Division) where Marsh is well known in arranging WageGuard TM, a personal accident insurance program.
